While there may not be space to mention every single issue we have worked on over the last year, we would still like to highlight the time and effort our committees, task forces and groups have put in on a wide range of topics. Whether it be through a consultation response, a position paper, new study or maybe just discussing during a meeting, we have made sure your priorities have been represented. So, what have we been up to in 2024? There is too much to list, but here is a quick snapshot to give you an idea:
